What are your greatest strengths that would be useful in church planting?

In which two areas of your life or ministry do you think you would benefit most if you could grow in greater maturity?

If married, what is your wife's perspective on entering the adventure of being a church planter's wife...

Describe your effectiveness in reaching those with the Gospel who do not have a relationship with Christ.

Do you see yourself as an initiator-developer (one who starts things from scratch and is able to organize and develop)? Please give specific examples (ministry or non-ministry related things).

How have you prepared yourself to be a church planter (reading, seminars, classes, internships, etc.)?

What do you see yourself doing in 5 years? How will this Internship help you get there?

What do you expect to gain from this Internship? How can we invest in you?

Would you prefer an urban or suburban setting? Tell us why.
